You may seek to have your "Unsatisfactory" rating raised to the next higher rating category and you have 15 calendar days from the date you receive your rating to file an appeal. The first step will be a review of your appeal by your Agency Performance Evaluation Appeals Board (STEP 1 below).

STEP 1 - AGENCY LEVEL

Instructions
To appeal your "Unsatisfactory" rating, complete this form in the space provided below and submit it to your Agency Appeals Board.
• Unless you cite specific reasons why your work performance deserves a higher rating, your appeal will be dismissed. Only your rating may be appealed. Disputes concerning such issues as your individual performance program and the rating and appeals process are not subject to appeal.
• Employees who appeal their rating may make a personal appearance before their Agency Appeals Board to explain their reasons for appeal. If you wish to make a personal appearance, you must indicate this by checking the box below.
• CSEA-, PEF- and DC-37-represented employees are entitled to be accompanied by a representative appointed by their respective unions. M/C-designated employees may be accompanied by a person of their choosing who may act as an observer only.
