More Information

Travel & Housing

Arrangements are made by PEF's Special Events Department. Registration is completed through an online form. The union books or reimburses for travel and secures hotel reservations based on double occupancy. Delegates who prefer a single room must pay half the room rate.

Employee Organization Leave (EOL) & Expenses

PEF has an agreement with the New York State Office of Employee Relations (OER) to charge EOL for delegates, but you must still request the time off from your supervisor. PEF provides a $150 meal stipend, and your PEF Division may elect to supplement with an additional $150. To keep union costs down, that money should be used for food, which will be limited at Convention events.
